

NEW FREEDOM GRANT (5317)

Below is a listing of New Freedom (Section 5317) awards

2011 New Freedom Awards

United Community Health Center operating funds for client transportation to medical appointments for older adult clients and persons with disabilities.

Intermountain Center for Human Development, a non-profit service provider, operating funds to increase transportation services for seriously emotionally disabled children, seriously mentally ill adults and developmentally disabled individuals.

2010 New Freedom Awards

Easter Seals Blake Foundation operating funds for weekday employment transportation for persons with disabilities in the Vail region.

United Community Health Center operating funds for client transportation to medical appointments for older adult clients and persons with disabilities.

Intermountain Center for Human Development, a non-profit service provider, operating funds to increase transportation services for seriously emotionally disabled children, seriously mentally ill adults and developmentally disabled individuals.

2006- 2009 New Freedom Awards

Intermountain Center for Human Development, a non-profit service provider, to increase transportation services for seriously emotionally disabled children, seriously mentally ill adults and developmentally disabled individuals

Rural Fleet Maintenance and Volunteer Reimbursement: Critical support for rural fleet providing medical trips for rural elderly and disabled residents through the Arivaca Coordinating Council.

Mobile Market Modifications for Accessibility. Community Food Bank to increase access by those with disabilities to rural mobile markets providing healthy foods and medical services to isolated rural and tribal communities

Oro Valley Transit service Coordinator to assist with expansion of Coyote Run additional weekday hours and weekend service.

Mobility Travel Training Program: Training for elderly and disabled residents on how to ride fixed- route transit system (Sun Tran).