What is PAG?

PAG works to improve the quality of life in our region through planning and development projects, good government, sound fiscal policies, and communications that promote good decision-making. We provide public services and programs that monitor the region's growth and development.

PAG, a government regional council comprised of nine member jurisdictions, promotes good decision-making on issues related to regional transportation, growth and development, and fiscal policies.

For more information, please visit www.pagnet.org

Printed December 2005 – Not for resale